

CALL FOR PAPERS
TDK in English Studies

The Institute of English Studies at Károli Gáspár University invites students at all levels of their studies to participate in this year's Student Research Conference (TDK) on 14 November 2019, from 4:00 p.m. Students who successfully present their papers will be qualified to participate in the National Conference for Student Research (OTDK) in 2020.

The Student Research Conference offers a forum for students to present their work in any of the fields taught at the Institute of English Studies (literature, linguistics, history, culture, language pedagogy, etc.). Presentations of approx. 20 minutes will be followed by a short discussion.

Students wishing to participate should contact a supervisor and submit a detailed proposal (at least 500 words) in which they explain their chief research objectives and the methods and resources they wish to use. Those writing their degree theses can also apply by submitting a chapter of their work.

Please send the title of your paper, together with your proposal and the name of your supervisor, to Veronika Ruttkay (ruttkay.veronika@kre.hu).

The deadline for submissions is 4 November.

For further information about the OTDK conference visit the website <http://otdk.hu/>.

Some hints if you consider applying:

- Find a good research topic (a good seminar paper or presentation may be developed into a TDK paper)
- Find a supervisor from the Institute of English Studies (teachers will be glad to help)
- Papers may be in English or in Hungarian
- If you are in your final year: don't worry, your OTDK paper may overlap with your BA or MA thesis! (For further details see the otdk.hu website)
